TRC Wins the 2020 Regulator of the Year Award

April 6, 2021 – On March 28th, at the BVI Finance Awards, the Telecommunications Regulatory Commission emerged the winner of the Regulator of the Year Award.

It was a gratifying evening as the ceremony recognised financial institutions across the Virgin Islands for their excellent works.

Chief Executive Officer, Mr Guy L. Malone, commented, "At the Commission, we are thrilled to have won this gracious award. Having such worthy contenders, we believe it is imperative to do right by this recognition. The Commission accepts this award with pride."

The Commission's mission is to enable and facilitate adequate telecommunications infrastructure and services to ensure the long term benefit to the residents and businesses in the Virgin Islands. He added, "We look forward to upholding these very values that have allowed us to win this award."

The Board of Commissioners and the staff of the Commission express sincere thanks to everyone who recognized the Commission's commitment to service.

Note to Editors:

The Commission is the statutory body responsible for regulating the telecommunications sector of the Virgin Islands, protecting interests of users of telecommunications services, ensuring fair competition among operators of telecommunications networks and providers of telecommunications services, promoting the development of telecommunications throughout the Virgin Islands and advising the Premier's Office on telecommunications policies.
