

Commission's 2022 Scavenger Hunt Rules

Thank you for joining! The Telecommunications Regulatory Commission will be hosting a Scavenger Hunt under the theme: "Bridging the Generational Divide."

Seniors at times struggle with technology making them reluctant to learn or adopt to it. Technology can improve the quality of life, enable people to stay connected and promote interactions among individuals with similar interests.

This year's event is targeted to help seniors and the introduction to technology while connecting with friends and family through our scavenger hunt. Trivia questions were crafted that only seniors know the answers to while activities will require the assistance of family and friends.

Before participating, please review the rules below.

A list reflecting clues, trivia and activities will be presented at Registration.
